GREENWOOD L. L. TEAM TAKES RUMFORD PT. 13-9 FOR LEAGUE SUN SPOT

The Northern Oxford County Little League closed its regular playing season Monday night in one of the thrillers of the year, as Rumford Point matched its bats and gloves against the Greenwood team, to determine first place in the league. The pay-off game which ran nine innings, started off as many suspected with Greenwood scoring two runs in the top half of the first and Rumford Point coming back in the bottom half to tie. Picking up four more runs in the second, the Point went ahead until Rick Chase belted a grand slam home run in the fifth and Greenwood scored seven runs. Rumford Point kept picking away at the lead and at the end of the sixth six innings, the teams were tied at 9-9.

Steve Kuvaja pitched his allotted innings, allowing nine hits and Rick Chase was brought in to complete the three innings, giving the opposition two hits. The combined efforts of the Rumford Point pitchers, Kezal, Edmond and Farnum, allowed Greenwood to score but through the extra inning Kezal also helped his team with a three run home run and a double. Steve Kuvaja led Greenwood with a home run in the top of the ninth inning to rally and score four runs, winning the game 13-9.

This is the first time in Greenwood Little League History that the team has finished in first place in the league. Elimination series will begin at the Greenwood Little League field Sunday at 1:30 with the Bethel Red Sox vs. West Paris to be followed at 3:30 by Andover vs. Bryant and Rumford Point will play the Bethel Braves at 5:00. Sunday will see Greenwood playing the winner of the Andover-Bryant Pond match with another 4:00 game scheduled. Snacks and chips will be sold for

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

There has been several reports of near accidents involving bicycles and pedestrians on the sidewalks. There is an ordinance prohibiting the riding of bicycles on sidewalks which, due to lack of patrolmen on duty during the day, has not been enforced. We may be forced to hire a man for that purpose if more caution is not used by the cyclists.

Anyone who wishes to have their driveway tarred should contact the Town Office. We expect to do our tarring within the next month.

The Civil Defense unit has been presented with a rescue vehicle. It is housed at the Fire Station and is to be used within the county if needed. This vehicle is very well equipped with the necessary items for most emergencies. It is a valuable asset to the town especially in light of the limited medical services available. There is a well trained group of individuals who man the ambulance service that can operate this vehicle.

Moving to the richly forested and productive western Maine section for the first time the 1973 event will include demonstrations of aircraft fire control by the Maine Forest Service, safety operation of power saws used in the woods, types of safety equipment used by woods workers and all types of heavy and light power equipment including wheel loaders, and at least one mechanical tree harvester.

Registration for visitors will start at 9:30 a. m. and a lumbermen's beef stew dinner will be served at noon by the staff at the Saddleback ski area.

Maine's 1973 Forest Princess will be chosen from a field of about 10 candidates and announced at the conclusion of a brief afternoon speaker program. The scheduled speakers include Saddleback President John Christie who will welcome the visitors to the ski area, and Fred A. Sumner, executive secretary of the Northeastern Loggers Association. BETHEL'S FIRST? — Wednesday of this week what may have been the first underground storage tank for gasoline was unearthed and trucked away during excavation operations for the new bank building on Main Street. Many years ago one of the stores which occupied the recently razed building on the site sported one of the first curbside gas pumps in town.

On this Thursday morning, the concrete steps at the right were being removed.

SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME FOR THE AGED, BLIND, AND DISABLED

Starting in January 1974

The Federal Government will make monthly cash payments starting in January 1974 to people in financial need who are 65 or older or who are blind or disabled. John M. Wolfe, Social Security District Manager in Lewiston, stated his office is now taking applications for these payments from people who are not getting State of Maine Old Age Assistance or Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled or Aid to the Blind.

People who are getting one of these State Welfare payments don't have to do anything now because of the new Federal program. The Social Security Administration and the State are working together to get ready for the new program, and these people will hear later what they need to do if anything.

The new program will take the place of the present Federal State program of public assistance payments to people 65 or older or blind or disabled. But States will continue to provide other services to these people and may add to the Federal payment under certain circumstances. The 1974 State and local public assistance offices will continue to make a search in the usual way. The aim of the program is to give additional money to needy people.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres. —

For several mornings the sun came over our hills to the east and seemed so happy to be back each day. "Half light, dawn light breaking through the trees, Dream light, soft light stirring with the breeze," Edna G. Hines.

At the farm the haymakers have made the best of it. At times the north west winds swept the skies clear of every wisp of a cloud. It has been a different world. A whole new pattern greeted us touching a familiar chord of summer memory.

The heat poured from the sky and in the garden plants lifted their arms in welcome.

"It's then the crops make headway, And the cornstalks, every one, Sort of reach out, silk and tassels, Like they're racing for the sun."

— Barton Rees Pogue

Going to the fields, the bubbling song of the bobolink was missing. No more will be heard this season from the branches, fence posts, swaying grass tops, or from the air as he so often came like the sound of some musical water fall. He leaves us his long southern journey at such an early date.

Late in starting, the farmers have really been busy.

"He stands and gazes out upon his fields, And glances in the richness of the earth, Humble he feels before its mighty worth, And thankful for the bounty of its yields."

— Marian B. Mansell

As a farmer's wife, I know the long hours

"I am a farmer's wife, These two strong hands of mine Know the soil and elements of wind and storm; And heavy dawn, they lie at night, Against a sheet they've rubbed To snowy white."

— Myrtle V. Sheppard

There have been a thousand things to do. The clatter sound of the mowing machine, the tappers, the rakes, the balers, and finally the trucks we heard each day and long into the evening. That sun-drenched warmth had to be used while it lasted.

"Then it's time to get the mower, 'Cause the summer's in its prime. We fall our barns to harvest, In the busy lay of time."

— Anne Campbell

"I like barns especially in autumn, When they are filled from top to bottom, With the year's harvest, smelling of spring, And every other bare-ribbed thing."

— Marion Doyle

I moved to the hilltop fields. Beyond the pasture and the wood lay the pond drenched by the light. I like to look on the easy farms, And fields and lanes below; Oh to climb to the top of a hill, To the place where I know."

— Arthur Unknown

From the steep knoll I saw the great cooling view of the mountain. The landscape below me was dotted with a map of three colors, the green of the grass, the brown of the soil, and the blue of the sky.

I then went to the garden to pick peas and snap beans.

Looking back along the road I recalled many of the flowers, the daisies, the pink roses, the common St. John's-wort with its yellow flowers which every New England farmer wishes had remained where it rightfully belongs—on the other side of the water.

The ditches were lined with the dainty little jewel-weeds, orange-yellow spotted with reddish-brown. Joe Pye weed is beginning to tinge with "crushed raspberry" the low lands. This and the goldenrod tell us summer is slipping.

Nestled in a secluded spot, its location I shall not divulge, for only one now of several is left, was the fringed orchid. I must keep its secret for so few have the discipline to resist the taking. The same lines which describe the fringed gentian may well apply to this orchid: "Sweet and quiet eye looks through its fringes to the sky."

After the lunch hour was over the lawns were waiting to be mowed. That took me a full hour at least.

After supper my farmer returned to the field. I did something quite important, NOTHING. I sat on the lawn, visited with my "chippy" as he came and went, climbing to my top for seeds again and again. The humming birds visited the flowers. He would dart here and there, such a graceful little sprite, busy everywhere.

Butterflies waltzed their way home, across the lawns.

Purple finches drank at the bird bath and quarreled at the feeder.

It grew dusky and my farmer came home. The fireflies moved in numbers through the gloom. How lovely the light as a phosphorescent glow passed close against the maple. It had something of the moon-glow in it as it and many others came to guide us to the door and a cool night of rest.

LOCKE MILLS LEGION NINE PICKS UP TWO VERDICTS OVER WEEK END

Locke Mills got fine pitching performances from Pete Blake and Wayne Cummings to pick up a pair of American Legion baseball decisions. The former scattered ten hits to beat Belgrade on the Telstar diamond Saturday and the latter had a four-hitter at Fairfield Sunday to gain a 4-2 victory.

Blake also gave up 10 walks but had 11 timely strikeouts to escape serious trouble until the eighth when he allowed three runs. Locke Mills got to Dave Willey for seven runs in the first six innings.

Pete helped his own cause with a two-run double in the first, Rick Wing drove in two runs on a squeeze bunt in the sixth and Steve Jack drove in two runs in the eighth.

Sunday, Cummings gave up singles to Fairfield in the first and third and Locke Mills was blanked until the eighth when Pete Wiese cleared the bases with a double. Locke Mills added an insurance score in the ninth.

SUPPLEMENTAL INCOME

son who's 65 or older or blind or disabled can have a basic cash income—at least $130 a month for one person and $195 a month for a married couple. These rates rise to $140 and $210 respectively effective July of next year. This doesn't mean that every eligible person will get that much from the Federal Government every month. The amount will depend on how much other income he has.

A person who is single (or married but not living with his spouse) can have assets—things he owns—worth up to $1,500 and still get Federal payments. The amount for a couple is $2,250. Not everything owned counts as an asset. For example, a home generally doesn't count. And the Federal Government will not put liens on the homes of people getting supplemental payments.

Personal effects or household goods also will not count in most cases. Insurance policies or a car may not affect eligibility either but this will depend on their value.

People also can have some money coming in and still get supplemental security income. (The income limits are based on the amount of money coming in during each calendar quarter—3 month periods which begin January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1. The figures in this article however, are for monthly amounts to make it simpler.)

The first $20 a month income generally won't effect the Federal payments. And people may be eligible for a supplemental payment even though they work part time. The first $65 in earnings in a month won't count against the supplemental security income payment, and only half of the rest of any additional earnings will count.

Apart from earnings, any other income above the first $20 a month generally will reduce the amount of the Federal payment. This includes social security checks, veterans payments, workmen's compensation, pensions, annuities, gifts, and other income.

Also, for eligible people who live in someone else's household—a son's or daughter's home, for example—the basic Federal payment is reduced by one-third before the other income that may effect the amount payable is deducted.

A Social Security representative is at the Rumford Post Office, lower floor, every Wednesday from 1:00 to 3:30 p. m.

REDUCTION-IN-FORCE CHANGES ASKS OFFICE HOURS

"The recent reduction in force in ASCS has reduced the office staff to one person, the CED," announced Beverly T. Dean, County Executive Director for the Oxford County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. For this reason some changes in the Office hours are necessary.

Until further notice the South Paris office will be closed Wednesday to allow time for the CED to do the necessary field work. On Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday the office will be open from 8 A. M. to 12 noon and from 12:30 thru 4:30 P. M. as before.

The office will be closed Aug. 8 through 10 for convention. Bank and post office business may necessitate the office being closed for short periods during regular office hours.

WEEK IN OXFORD CO.

Reportedly several thousand persons visited the wide ranging art exhibit on Main Street, Norway, and Moore Park, South Paris, during the week end. The exhibition was put on by the Western Maine Art Group as well as visiting artists.

The crowd, unofficially estimated at over 2,000 attended the 20th annual beanheal bean festival at the Oxford County fairgrounds Saturday. Charles G. Hall, chief chef, estimated that more than half a ton of beans were served. The event was sponsored by the Oxford Hills Chamber of Commerce.

A mail truck from Portland on the car route into Fryeburg was demolished Friday when it left the road in a rain shower Friday morning. The driver, Duane Kelly, was not seriously injured.

A demonstration of rug hooking was staged all day Monday at the Maine Cottage, Main Street, South Paris. The exhibition and demonstration attracted countless rug hooking enthusiasts. Vi George of Great Neck, L. I., was in charge. All materials were supplied by Mrs. George.

Week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brooks and family were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyde. Cathy and Allen who were enroute to their cottage in Greenville for a three week stay before returning home to Grand Rapids, Me.

ANNUAL AUCTION AT RUMFORD POINT CHURCH SATURDAY, AUG. 11

Saturday, Aug. 11, has been set as the date for the annual Rumford Point Church Auction. This benefit event will allocate this year's proceeds for the purchasing of new Sunday School classroom and teaching materials.

Auctioneer Stuart Martin will start passing out the deals at 10 a. m. on Saturday and will continue throughout the day. Many varied and unusual items, new and used, will be placed on the auction block.

Ladies of the Church will be on hand offering hot dogs and soft drinks to satisfy your hunger pangs. Or, if you wish, bring a picnic lunch so you can be sure to see all the items on the block.

The church will be open for receiving donations during the week of Aug. 5 from 12 p. m. to 8 p. m. Or, if you wish, call the collection agent nearest your area. Donation of new articles is tax deductible. So clean out your attic and garage and support a very good cause.

IN MEMORIAM

For Abner Kimball
Died Aug. 4, 1973
"Everlasting arms of love
Are around, beneath, above."
Papa, dear, you're safe forever
in his everlasting arms.
Safe from pain and safe from sorrow
And from the world's alarms.
Nevermore you'll have to suffer,
As you did in years gone by.
God has a special place for you in his mansion in the sky.
And we'd rather have you here.

We'll meet again someday
But until then you're in our hearts.
Forever and a day.
Papa, dear, you're safe forever
in the arms of his wing
When the eternal bells
And the heavenly angels sing.
Also we miss you Papa.
It seems that God knows best.
And in his everlasting arms.
You'll find eternal rest.
He took you away to a better life
Than you ever knew before.
And we can see you there with him
On that eternal shore.
Papa, you're not alone in your grave tonight.
Our love is buried with you there.
We'll always feel you near us
Our future life to share.

UPTON

Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres. - We were entertained Friday night by a violent thunderstorm. The electricity was out on Mill Road for several hours and telephones from one to four days. Joy Yarnell described her place as "hot" with lightning jumping around from place to place in the house. Her son, Mike, received a shock while standing in the middle of the kitchen floor. One of my neighbors said the storm was not as much to blame for the phones burning out as the hot stuff us gals kept going over the wires. That being the case, I'll hasten to report my phone was fixed about as soon as I missed it.

Charlie Heywood and friends returned from a pleasant tour of Nova Scotia Saturday evening.

The date for a special church service and communion with a guest speaker from Crystal River, Fla., was reported erroneously. It is to be held Saturday, Aug. 4, at 7:30 p.m.

The Joe Weishart family of Andover ran into a bear on East B Hill road. They were traveling at a very moderate speed and the only damages were a cockeyed headlight on their bug and a bruised bear bottom.

The Wells see a coydog daily which crosses the road in front of their home to go over to the brook to drink.

The Murphys have been entertaining guests during this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lavalley and family are spending a vacation in town.

Kathy Bernier, Barbara and Ginger Graves are on a camping trip on the Appalachian Trail.

The Chittums moved into their new home Tuesday.

My chickens like to stroll from their appointed quarters whenever they can make it over the fence and one got in the way of the mowing machine where Fred was working.

We enjoyed a chicken dinner and had one less to chase in that evening.

LOCKE MILLS - Mrs. John Mills, Corres. - Reminder: The Ladies Circle will hold their annual summer sale at the Sunday School room this Friday, August 3, starting at noon with lunch. Hot dogs and sandwiches will be sold along with other edibles.

Mrs. Marion Tibbetts, Miss Charlotte Cole and Mrs. Leona Curtis attended the funeral of Guy Emery Sunday afternoon. Charlotte and Leona then visited at the Ledgeview home, Mrs. Charlotte Davis at her home in South Paris and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Prall at Greenwood Center. The Pralls have friends, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, visiting them from Pennsylvania.
